I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for Remember the best times, the laughter, the song
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls

“ In Memory of A Wonderful Lady..

I Promised Myself

*I promised myself I would not cry
Yet I stand here with tears on my cheeks
My love for you is greater than my promise
I'll forever miss you, so I guess I'm weak*

*I promised myself I would surly be strong
To be the anchor for my family and friends
I guess my anchor broke, I'm drifting away
I myself, need the strength of family and friends*

*I promised myself to keep your memories alive
Sharing the wonderful love you generously gave
Your kindness has touched so many who knew you
When giving of yourself, you gave and gave*

*I promised myself to always keep you in my heart
Remembering the wonderful times that was spent with you
Great memories forever locked within my heart
Until we meet again, we all will forever remember and love you.*

“ Mrs. Allie or Aunt Bee will be greatly missed by the staff at Panola County Nursing and Rehabilitation. She was a beautiful person inside and out. She never was a problem as long as she got her coffee. To the family thank you so much for allowing Aunt B to bless our lives. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Ms. Bea was one of my first volunteers to sign up when I became Volunteer Coordinator at BISD 20 yrs ago. As we were going over the dress code policy, this voice comes out of the group of ladies asking, "You mean I can't wear my hot pants and boa to volunteer in?". At that point, I lost control of the entire meeting and Ms. Bea became a lifelong friend! I will never forget you my friend. My prayers are with you Debbie and Michelle and the rest of the family. God has gained a beautiful flower in his bouquet.
