“ Mamaw was a wonderful woman. She loved her children and grandchildren with truly unconditional love. I remember she made the best biscuits I've ever eaten and the best fried chicken or squirrel. She will be missed by those who loved her.

“ Some of my fondest memories of Aunt Alma are her sweet voice and great hugs! When we went to visit with her and Ben, Tex, and Rix, she would give us coffee with milk and sugar. We laughed with her and always prayed before drinking the coffee, thanking The Lord for it. I truly loved Aunt Alma, and my dad often said I looked like her - especially when I got a perm like she had. That was one of the greatest compliments ever! I also loved going to the creek with my cousins.

Aunt Alma was one of the hardest working people I ever knew. She was also a dear, sweet, fun loving woman. We loved visiting her when we were children, traveling with our parents from Virginia, and it was great to spend some time with her when I visited Carthage in 2019. Sending love and sympathy to Ben and Rix and all the family. May she Rest In Peace.
