“ Heaven is rejoicing as my sister Alma is now home with her loving Lord and precious family and friends. Our Alma always brought a smile to my voice and joy to my heart. She overflowed with the warmth and love of her Savior to anyone she met. My heart grieves for the loss of her presence her but rejoices to know I will be with her soon again and forever. Lord, please comfort and watch over my sister Betty, let her know I am always here for her, and comfort all of Alma's friends and family. Amen!

I have too many fond memories of Alma to count. I have known her as long as Bobby and I have been married which this month will be 45. Rodney and she both were good friends of ours. She and her good friend Debbie Pierce helped with my daughter's wedding. At all the bow tournaments she was known for her beans and hot water cornbread and always there to help run the concessions. She had a big heart. This is just barely touching on the many things she did to help out anywhere she could. She is much loved and will be greatly missed.
