“ To Sis' family,

I was saddened to read of Sis' passing, I remember her from the 70's when we rode horses at the Sabine Riding Club. My grandparents were Travis and Iva Burgess, my sisters and I rode there many years and remember so many good friends such as Sis, her brothers Ray and Faye, their wives, the Ray's, the Johnsons, Ovid Evans, the Goolsby's, the Riley's, etc. I remember that Sis' sons Jim and Bubba were her joy, she was a fine lady. We lost touch with so many friends throughout the years but they'll always be in our memories.

Have no fear, Sis is being well taken care of in God's Kingdom, she's smiling down upon us all with her brothers Ray and Faye, such fine gentlemen!

My family and I always consider ourselves to be blessed by having people such as these who have touched our lives, good friends and memories really make our lives.

Our sympathies to Sis' family and friends!
