I never had the honor of meeting sweet Avery this side of heaven but I can tell you that I was touched by her story, her life, her spirit, her courage and her fight. God has a way of using his angels on this earth to do just that and that is just what she was... an angel on earth.

By all accounts from those who knew her well .... The light of the Lord shined through her and they basked in the beauty and love that was “ Avery.”

I have prayed and battled alongside many for this beautiful girl and her family for years and in doing so have witnessed amazing love and blessings and the ultimate glory of God.

I now stand in prayer for her wonderful family as they say not “ goodbye” but, “see you later “ to this precious angel.

I know that Avery has now seen the beautiful face of God and her pain and suffering is forever erased. Until we meet sweet girl.... Keep shining that bright light among the heavenly stars. 🙏❤️

“ Avery was a sweet spirit. She drew you into conversation, and then you couldn't help but love her. Although, we are rejoicing for her...that she is free at last from the body, we are heartbroken for her precious family. May God wrap you in His loving embrace and give you the peace and comfort only He can.

“ In 2015, we were blessed to spend a week with Avery and her family at the Lighthouse Family Retreat. The family left a loving impression and a place in our hearts that we'll never forget. Although Avery wasn't feeling good she never stopped giving hugs, spreading her love and wanting her nails painting. Grateful that God blessed Avery in our lives, even though our time at the retreat was only for a week she left us with love and memories we will cherish forever. With Love, Christa and Ella
