“ Daddy,

We will miss you so much. You put up such a good fight but unfortunatly at the end it was too much. You were a great father, husband and provider for us. You taught me so much from how to tie my shoe to how to shoot a gun. But most importantly you taught me Christian values, morals, work ethic, to be mindful of others, and you taught me what a real gentleman is and how a lady should be treated. You are my hero.

I love you and miss you.

“ Camie, I was so sorry to see that your husband had passed away. I am praying for your family at this difficult time.

Do you remember me? We lived across from each other on 34th ST in Snyder and went to school together. I knew you moved back to Carthage area. I married and live in Gilmer. (43 years now). I loved your family because you had all those sisters - I was the only child. We had 3 daughters too, now have 10 grands.

Once again, I hope you get comfort from the memories you made and from your family.##imported-begin##Barbara Ray Bynum##imported-end##
