“ His Garden, by Anonymous
When God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
He put His arms around you
And whispered come to Me
He didn't like what you went through
And so He gave you rest
His garden must be beautiful
He only takes the best
And when we saw you sleeping
So peaceful and free from pain
We couldn't wish you back
To suffer that again
Today we say goodbye
And as you take your final rest
That garden is surely beautiful
Because you are one of the best###imported-begin##Bridget

“ Barbara was the best sister and best friend any one could have. I can't even put into words how much I will miss her smile, her giving heart, and generous spirit. I remember when we were young, Barbara would get up early on Saturday mornings to get all her chores done so she could watch "American Bandstand." Now, all her chores are done and she's in Heaven's Bandstand! She has and always will be an inspiration of true humility and contentment. She now has "Beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness." Isaiah 61:3##imported-begin##Jeanette Farmer Ortigo##imported-end##
