“ My dear Aunt Sue you were the best. I have so many memories of that hot water cornbread. If you wasn't hungry when you went to Aunt Sue's and Uncle Carols house you had better get that way there was always cooking going on. I think she had a way to show you through her cooking really how much she loved you & that sweet tea no one ever made it like she did. Through the years I remember her working and constantly doing something down at that motel. I thank you so much for helping my daddy and him having you and Uncle Carol to talk to. You just can't help but see love in your eyes it's like I am dreaming, As I have told you so many times I love you with all my heart will continue to and all those memories will turn into sweet precious memories. We will meet again this side of Heaven where there will be no more tears. I am glad we have that faith (to carry the ones you left behind) through, Find all those Cheshiress and Hollands and have a heavenly time "It Is Well With My Soul") for you. Your fine now.

Ronnie, I know how you feel. She "mothered" me when mine was 200 miles away for 10 years! she taught me, a bride, how to do laundry and so many other things! So, yes, I know how you feel!
