“ I didn't know much about my grandpa except that when he did come to visit in Utah he was a great man I never had no hatred towards him never for my momma billy jean Anders Bice thought the world of him even though they were so far apart she still was his baby girl. Losing my mother has been so hard on me. I would like to meet you all that were a part of my grandpa and I would really like to see how he lived. Please if there is any way to help me get out there I would love that. Please contact me at 8014036806 or my Facebook please please please. I would really like to see my grandpas everyday life. Thank you

“ Clayton and I will certainly miss Mr. Billy. For many years I enjoyed him as a customer, sharing his fishing stories, and of course, deer hunting adventures. He always got a kick out of hearing my fishing tales and hunting trips. He would tell me where we needed to go to "catch "em all"!! We loved him so much. His precious family are in our prayers.
