I was sad to read about Bobby's passing....it's been decades since I'd seen him...I remember him from The Sabine Riding Club...Norman. Kim and their mother Norma Jean rode horses there...we also enjoyed Sunday Trail Rides down the Tram Road not far from their home. I last saw Kim about 10 years ago...my Grandparents were Travis and Iva Burgess...we had a lot of fun those days...we were blessed to know so many good people via riding horses in Panola and surrounding counties...My sympathies to Norman, Kim and the family. May Bobby rest in Peace....

“ Bobby was greatly loved and respected by my family. My mom and dad, Bill and Sue Rodgers spoke of him often. The short time Cathy and I knew Bobby, we grew to love him too. We will greatly miss that broad smile and great sense of humor he always shared. He is now at peace and reaping the rewards he truly earned. He was much more than just a friend and relative, he was a jewel shared with all who knew him and we miss him already. May the Lord give comfort to his family and friends. God Bless.

*In Loving Memory,
Bill and Cathy Rodgers*
