“ One of my fondest memories of Aunt Bo was going to see her in St. Louis one summer when in Jr. high school. It was there where I was skilled on how to drive in big city traffic. She drove like a wild woman with a “get out of my way I’m coming thru” attitude. If someone did get in her way they also got a piece of her mind; and I thought this was the coolest thing I had ever seen, and an experience I’ll never forget. Rest in peace Aunt Bo.....the coolest Aunt ever..... May your spirit live forever.....

“ Brooksie you were one of a kind. I've missed our friday night RFD hangouts but more than that I'm going to miss you. So sharp, witty and never ending stories that make me laugh when I think of you. Rest easy and now you can go to bed whenever you want. Thinking of you Ted and family.
