“ Buck was a great man that loved his sisters. He enjoyed a good time playing practical jokes on me when I was a young boy always showed lots of interest in teaching me and my well-being. He was full of old time farming practices, and many old time stories when he was a boy,like a walk from the Shreveport state fair home just in time to hear his dad say to get up and go to work. We made lots of great memories together he will be missed but never forgotten.
