My deepest condolences to the family. Carolyn was not only BEAUTIFUL, she looked like she was so full of life & love she gave to her family by being so family oriented. Just know she is glowing in Gods love now and in the arms of Jesus. To all her loved ones: Death has a sting but your hearts will heal in time and these precious memories, I have seen of her on this slideshow are all in the hourglass of time, with the blessings that God shined down on you. God bless and may he comfort you in this great loss of your loved one. - Gail Turner Stevenson 🌈🌈🌈🌈🌈🌈🌈

“ Wendy, I'm sorry for your loss and was truly shocked to see the obituary. You might not remember that I was your teacher at Hudson, I think first or second grade. Your Dad was NOT supportive of My teaching You and the school year wasn't as good due to this. Your mother and I were substituting at the same school and we spoke of this. She apologized for his behavior and told me she'd divorced him. This will ALWAYS remain a Great memory of Your Mom to me!!
