“ Brad said that Shorty would get behind him in the drive thru line @ MacDonald's and honk his horn several times and hollar out his window at him. Brad didn't know who was making all the ruckus and finally he spotted Shorty laughing at him. Brad loved this character! We know he is terribly missed. Prayers for his sweet family.

“ My Uncle Shorty was larger than life. As a child, one of the things I most looked forward to, upon returning home to Texas, was the hugs, love, & “pickin’ fights” that were guaranteed to occur at some point during our visit! He & my Daddy, Jesse Lynn, loved to gang up and ‘pick on Uncle Billy” about his cigars or a new pair of overalls. To my poor Granny, they would pretend to search her pockets for money & tease her about her house dress or a number of other silly things. My Dad tells a story about one time he & uncle Shorty were out working & somehow an old, rusty piece of barb wire got stuck in Uncle Shorty’s throat! He went staggering in the house to find their Momma with my Daddy in hot pursuit! Daddy says without any warning, his Momma reached & grabbed ahold of the jagged wire & jerked it from his brother’s throat! She then poured turpentine on the wound and sent them BOTH back outside to finish the chores! Uncle Shorty did as he was told. I am sure he knew better than to refuse! Lol!

Later in life, if I ever caught my dad telling a new (most likely not politically correct) joke, I knew he & Uncle Shorty had recently traded good laughs during a recent phone call.

We have so many great memories. We are sending our love & prayers for each of you. I am sure he is having a big reunion celebration with all the ones we lost before him! We can take comfort in knowing we will see them all again one day too!
