

Mrs. Chloe Nadine Sterling Warda

February 6, 1924 - January 11, 2014

Hawthorn Funeral Home announces the death of Chloe Nadine Sterling Warda, 89, of Carthage, Texas. She passed away peacefully on January 11, 2014, in Carthage, Texas. Cremation arrangements were completed under the direction of Hawthorn Funeral Home in Carthage, Texas.

Chloe Nadine was born February 6, 1924, to James Eli and Ida Mae Karnes Lindley at her family's home in Eastland County, East Texas. She was a vivacious and energetic young woman given the nickname of "Hoppy" for her love of dancing. Besides Texas, she lived in Arizona, Colorado, North Carolina, Wyoming, Nevada, and California.

Nadine led a full and colorful life. She was a tireless volunteer for countless charitable organizations. For decades, she served as a dedicated AA counselor in Marin and Sonoma Counties, California, working at the Orenda Center and other facilities. Her parents, husbands, and all her siblings precede her in death.

Nadine is survived by her son, Michael Wilson and wife Margie of Graton, CA; daughter, Lynne Pimentel and David Koelsch of Benicia, CA; DeLores Ann Callahan of Phoenix, AZ; grandchildren Robert Wilson and wife Christine of Valencia, CA; Christopher Wilson and fiancée Leia Landis of Ojai, CA; J.P. Jordan and wife Victoria of Windsor, CA; Michael Callahan and wife Gabrielle of Newbury Park, CA; Sheila Callahan and husband Michael of Delano, CA; nine great-grandchildren; foster children; and numerous nieces, nephews, and friends. She will be greatly missed by all.

A private memorial service and celebration of her life for family and friends is planned. Thereafter, some of Nadine's ashes will be scattered in the Rocky Mountains as she requested, and the rest will be inurned in a mausoleum in Northern California. An online guestbook may be signed at www.hawthornfuneralhome.com.

Tribute Wall

“ Mrs. Warda, I will miss you very much. I enjoyed so much the visits we had and the church services we were able to attend together at Carthage Health Care. Thank you so much for your friendship. Terry

Terry Morris - January 29, 2014 at 04:48 PM