“ Its been a yr since u left. Dakota so many things I wanna say,wanna do. I can't understand why God took u so young. U still had yr whole life ahead of u. Baby boy u was a good man that would do anything for anyone.u was like a son to me always worried about u an my Hanna. Now I know ur ok an always will be. Every time I pass trinity river I just start crying,all I can think about is u alone all alone scared as hell an if u was suffering. Damn baby boy I wish I was there with u to have ur back,to be able to save u. To be able to say Dakota u a good man an im not gonna let u die. Baby boy u had ur whole life ahead of u. U was a very talented young man that deserves all the happiness in the world. U didn't deserve to struggle u didn't. I love u always an forever will neva forget u neva. The day I found out me an Chicago went down there to see ur last place where they found u. Did u hear my prayer did u. I cried an cried cause I can't understand how this happen to u. When I was leaving I felt like I was leaving u behind an i want u to know I neva would neva. Rest in peace baby boy. To his family yall lost a wonderful smart intelligent young man,that had so many different talents. Im so sorry for yalls loss im so sorry. He was a very hard worker do anything for any one. J took this pic. When we worked in New Orleans he busted his ass off. Man he worked hard as hell for him to get done wrong. Luv u Dakota
