“ Dear Vana Family,

While I only had the opportunity to meet Mr Vana personally on a few occasions, those meetings gave me a glimpse into who he was. He was a man who loved life, loved to smile, and loved his family. I've seen the impact of his life in McKinney through Willis, who no doubt is the great man he is today because of the love, discipline, and example of his father.

Through this time of sadness my prayer for you is that you will always recall fondly the times you had with Dana, and that you trust in God who is always faithful to guide, love, and protect us, even when we are hurting.

Sincerely,
Schuyler and Lindsey Deitch

“ Carla,

Words will never express how sorry I am to hear of Dana's passing. I was in shock when i received the news. I loved him, he was so fun to be around. Your a strong woman, and the rock of the family stay strong for the boys and Mary. If you need anything you contact me. I love you, and miss you dearly.

Lean on the Lord and he will give you the strength to endure the passing of your spouse, and as you have always said your best friend. I'll call and check on you later.
