“ I was sorry to read of Dan's passing, he was indeed one in a million!

I remember him from the Sabine Riding Club during the late 1960's to mid 1970's, his smile, respectful and pleasant manners were contagious, he was always very friendly and happy to greet one and all at anytime!

Dan enjoyed serving the Sno Cones to the adults and children alike, no matter who you were, he was always at his very best, I saw him hundreds of times during those days and nights, his love for all never wavered.

It was my pleasure to have known him, he, Ovid Evans, Mr. David Johnson, Mr. John Goolsby, the Jernigan brothers, Walter Riley, my grandfather Mr. Travis Burgess and so many others had such a positive impact on hundreds of lives via the Sabine Riding Club.

My thanks to all, Heaven has once again called a great man home, God Bless!
