“ I can not express how much we miss you already, you were always right there no matter what. I lost not only my best friend but you were like another mother to me. I don't know how I'm going to get over not seeing you everyday and sitting on your porch laughing and talking about life and everything in general. I'm sure going to miss that sweet voice telling me every single day was your birthday and you wanted a birthday cake 💕 you don't know how of an impact you had in my life. We will forever miss you and hold you very dear to our hearts. I know you are not suffering anymore and for that I am thankful, life just won't be the same with you gone. Kiss my mama for me, yall hold it down up there and don't get into too much trouble together 😊 save a place for me. I'll see you both again someday, I love you to pieces, rest easy my Beautifuls!!! 😭💔
