“ George, so sorry to learn that Deanna passed away. She fought so hard her last years because she just loved life so much. I treasure our years together as young married couples and have some great memories. Remember the time she told me that she never let her bank account get below $2,000, and I believed her! (And that was a time both couples were barely making it from one payday to another.) Remember the weekends we would get together and walk up and down the KMart aisles guessing how much items cost? That was our free entertainment, and Deanna would make it a night of laughs. I could list many more, but I'll just say I feel so blessed to have had Deanna in my life. I know you will miss her.##imported-begin##Sandra Jones##imported-end##
