“ Thinking of Delores and remembering what a good big sister she was. She always made me laugh. I loved going shopping with her and out to a good meal when we could be together. She was such a good cook. Love to make goodies for family and friends around the holidays. She love to garden and plant beautiful flowers.. My Bradford Pear tree in front yard was because of her. It will always be a remembrance of her. She loved us all and will be greatly missed.
