“ Uncle Donnie, Yesterday we laid your body to rest and we reminisced about memories of time spent with you. I remember the summer's spent in carthage, the numerous games of HORSE and DOG of which I never won. But that was ok it was always fun trying. And can't forget the many early morning fishing trips to the spillway and other unknown places. Thanks for being the special uncle you were and for the great memories you made for me. Love and miss you Uncle Donnie can't wait to see you again when we have our heavenly reunion.##imported-begin##LISA WATSON##imported-end##

“ Donnie was always happy to see people and welcomed them with that familiar grin. I remember as a kid, we would go hunting and fishing occasionally and how much he enjoyed the outdoors. I appreciate the way he helped with Uncle Charles when he was ill. I'll miss Donnie.##imported-begin##Danny Sammons##imported-end##

“ I will miss the times we had together getting mulch, spotting the white mule along the way, grabbing a burger, as well as our Wednesday night visits. By the way, thanks for visiting my classroom at Gilmer. My students like the picture of the dog that you drew. May you rest in peace, my good friend.
