“ I met Dorothy back early 1970's as my closest friend Pat's mother. We were around 16. She was such a sweet, bubbly person - made me feel welcome when I felt I had no where to go. As the years rolled , I had gotten lost out there. My friend Pat found me and brought me back. We all have our struggles in life - those two ladies made a difference in mine, Kim as well. (Not to forget James,) they have beautiful daughters ♡! I'm grateful to still feel part of the family-- to them I send my love ♡♡♡
