

Mrs. Dorothy Louise Hall

January 3, 2014 - October 28, 2014

Graveside funeral services for Mrs. Dorothy Louise Hall, 76, of Tenaha, Shelby County, Texas, will be held 11:00 am Saturday, November 1, 2014, at the Gary Cemetery in Gary, Texas with Mr. Phil Reeves officiating. Burial will follow under the direction of Hawthorn Funeral Home. Mrs. Hall died Tuesday, October 28, in Center, Texas.

Mrs. Hall was born January 3, 1938 in Mansfield, DeSoto Parish, Louisiana, to the marriage of Thomas Raleigh and Clara Lexie Musgrave Robinson. She was raised and attended schools in DeSoto Parish, Louisiana. She married Huey Preston Hall, Sr., who preceded her in death. Dorothy was retired from Tyson Foods. During her employment she advanced from line worker to numerous supervising positions. Because of her love of animals, she was an advocate for animal rights. Dorothy was an avid gardener, a good cook, and loved giving her all to others.

Mrs. Hall was also preceded in death by her parents, one son, Jimmy Wayne Watson, daughter, Martha Ann Erkelens, and numerous brothers and sisters. She is survived by her daughter Missy Reeves and husband Phil of Caldwell, Texas, and one brother Franklin Robinson and wife Jan of Marshall, Texas, eleven grandchildren, twelve great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren.
