“ My most sincere condolences to the Landtroop family. I cannot imagine a mama - or a daddy for that matter - being more proud of one great woman as a daughter and three great men as sons than what Mrs. Landtroop must be for her children. I love all four of you, and I always will. Stay close to each other. It helps.

“ We were saddened to hear of Sis. Landtroop's passing. A wonderfully humble "lady". She displayed the Proverb 31 qualities of a truly godly woman in all that she did. She and Bro. M.C. Landtroop had a tremendous influence on our lives. We feel blessed that they shared a part of their lives with us. Bro & Sis Landtroop and family; we are confident in God's wisdom in all things and pray comfort and strength to you during this difficult time.

“ Words are never enough to say how sorry you are for the loss of a loved one. I loved Sis Landtroop very much. She was always such a delight to visit with. She surprised me one year on my birthday with a beautiful perfume decanter that I had admired when we had a Forgein Missionary visiting us at church. I will treasure it always. You all are in my prayers and thoughts. Love Sis. Gwen
