

Mr. Ed Morrison

October 3, 1930 - February 17, 2023

Hawthorn Funeral Home announces the passing of Mr. Ed Morrison, 92 of DeBerry, Texas, formerly of Wichita Falls, Texas.

Mr. Claude Ed Morrison Jr. was born on October 3, 1930, in Wichita Falls to his parents, Claude Ed Sr. and Helen Isabel Wetherbee. He passed this life on Friday, February 17, 2023, at his home in DeBerry surrounded by his loving family.

Mr. Morrison grew up in Wichita Falls and graduated high school from there as well. He was a meat cutter from the time he was six years old, and did that for many years before going into the oilfield. Once in the oilfield, he worked for and retired from Mitchell Energy. He enjoyed golfing and fishing and spending time with his family. He was known for his spontaneous dancing and even taught ballroom dancing. Mr. Ed was an author and wrote five books and two poetry books over the span of his 92 years on this earth and was a member of Still Waters Cowboy Church in Carthage.

He is survived by his loving wife, Sandy Morrison, sons, Steve Morrison and wife Cindy, Mike Morrison and wife Dora, and Walter Morrison; daughters, Tina Smith and husband Robert, and Frankie Sellers and husband Henry; sister, Sue Wiese; eleven grandchildren, sixteen great-grandchildren, and one great great grandchild. Numerous nieces, nephews and a host of friends also survive Mr. Morrison. He is preceded in death by his parents, and brother, Jack Curtis Morrison.

No services have been set at this time.
