

Mrs. Eileen Ruth Honeycutt

July 22, 1929 - May 31, 2024

Graveside services for Mrs. Eileen Mangham, 94 of Austin, formerly of Carthage, will be held on Tuesday, June 4, 2024, at 10:00 a.m. at the Walton Cemetery. Interment will follow under the direction of Hawthorn Funeral Home. Eileen Ruth Mangham Honeycutt was born on July 22, 1929, and passed away on May 31, 2024. She is survived by her two children, son David Honeycutt (wife Henley) and daughter Mary Evelyn McNamara (husband Timothy), as well as step-grandchildren Daniel, Madeline, Thomas, Lillian, Pippa, and Roland. She is predeceased by her parents, Earl Mangham and Evelyn Demmy Mangham.

Eileen graduated from Carthage High School, Class of 1946, and in 1950 received a Bachelor of Science degree in bacteriology from Texas State College for Women in Denton (now Texas Women's University). In 1951, she received advanced training as a medical technologist at Scott & White Hospital in Temple. Eileen was an avid reader and loved classical music. The family thanks the staff and friends at Brookdale Westlake Hills in Austin for a very happy last two years in Eileen's life. The family also thanks Hospice Austin for the loving care their mother received in her last few days.
