“ I am blessed beyond measure to be one of “Munna’s” grandchildren. She loved me in word and in deed from before my earliest memory with her to her last few days in this life. Thank you, Munna, for showing me what it means to love others and what it is to be loved! I know the purpose of this post is to share a memory, but I cannot choose just one. God blessed me with a lifetime of beautiful memories - and I am eternally grateful.

“ Ella Mae was such a special person. She was my Aunt but I grew up in the house with her and she felt more like a sister. She was fun and had a great laugh. We were at a funeral one time and someone asked me if my husband was my son. Ella and I looked at each other and started laughing and it was embarrassing to be sitting in a church at a funeral and laughing. She said she got the worst spanking of her life because of me. I always watched Ella and Leo at school because they were so much in love. I told on her a couple of times too. Ella, I loved you, loved you and I will miss you so much.
