“ Please accept my family's heartfelt condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. May you find comfort and peace in the fond memories of them, and The Almighty God's promise to restore those asleep in death, to perfect life on a paradise Earth, as written in The Bible for our comfort.

“ Our prayers are with you all during this most difficult time. When Uncle Buford and Aunt Gladys would come to visit us in Whitehouse, the first thing out was the coffee pot and next, the games. Whether it was dominos, Skip bo, or bingo, mother, Gladys and anybody they could get to join in would sit for hours, drinking coffee, playing games and laughing, while Buford and daddy sat in the backyard smoking Buford's famous brisket. Those are such beautiful memories of a truly beautiful lady, who is now reunited with all her family and no doubt, telling the Good Lord, in her quiet soft-spoken voice, that there will be bingo in heaven.

“ Aunt Gladys , mother , Uncle Bufford and daddy would always drink coffee around mamas table when they would visit. I still have the table and chairs at my house. When I remember them its always with a smile..the words she spoke were always so soft and tender.God certainly gained another angel.

“ I so loved caring for her. Mrs Eva was always a lady, sweet and demure. She battled a horrible disease but she kept her dignity and just exuded a calmness that belied the horrors of that disease. I always stayed with her if she got short of breath while she was getting her breath back or taking a breathing treatment after an attack of breathlessness. She ALWAYS said thank you. She ALWAYS was grateful for any kindness shown. I got to know her daughters and they have the same strength of character and mind she did. I'm glad though all were in my life.
