

Mr. Felton Beasley

August 2, 1947 - July 10, 2018

Felton Lawrence Beasley, age 70, passed on to his Heavenly home on July 10 in Tyler, Texas from a lung disease, pulmonary fibrosis, which was untreatable and not curable. Born in Center, Texas, he was the eldest child of Felton Ellis Beasley and Leta Mae Smith Beasley, who preceded him in death. Also preceded in death by Johnny James and Ollie Horton Smith, James Mc Cellan and Lena Finley Beasley, grandparents, and son, Kevin Lawson Beasley, brother-in-laws, James L. Bogue and Reid H. Bunger, numerous aunts, uncles and cousins. Felton is survived by Brenda Bogue Beasley, wife, of 50 years, a daughter, Tammy Beasley Baty, Forney, Texas, husband Darrell, and grandsons, Austin and Kaleb, sister-in-laws, Bette Bunger and Barbara Bogue, nieces, nephews, cousins, and a host of friends.

Felton loved the Lord, God's creations, photography, travel with Brenda in the Airstream, Beahive, fishing and woodworking. He attended Gary Schools, Panola Jr. College, Stephen F. Austin University where he graduated with BBA in Accounting. Felton was Valedictorian of his high school graduating class in 1965. His high school activities included FFA and varsity basketball. In the summer of 1964, he represented the Panola County American Legion at Texas Boy's State. He enjoyed playing sports and watching sport activities and coached numerous children's sports teams in basketball and baseball. He applied his Accounting in the printing industry with Moore Business Forms / RR Donnelley for 38 years in Texas, Illinois and South Carolina. Felton served on the board of directors of the company credit union for many years, president of the home owner's association in South Carolina, and served on the Greenwood, SC United Way Campaign. He retired February 2007 as a Plant Comptroller with RR Donnelly in Brenham, Texas. He was an ordained deacon and served in two churches.

He enjoyed storytelling, painting a picture with his words when writing, and helping and supporting others in any way he could. Felton taught children's church telling Bible stories with flannel graph boards, high school Sunday School, and worked with the university students. He taught many high school and college students to water ski, using much patience. Fishing was a hobby for many years, and catching a large mouth bass was a treat. His only hunting was with his camera.

Pallbearers: Brad Williamson, Frank Jousan, Andy Dill, Buddy Kay, Jeff Martin, Charles

Martin, Don Lee, Michael Johnson, Paul Jo Permenter, Renny Eaves,
He loved his church wherever he lived. Memorial donations may be made to the

“ I honestly don't remember the first time I met Brenda and Felton Beasley. Their son Kevin was my intern at Fredonia Hill and their daughter Tammy was in the youth group there. Felton also helped with the college group. My fondest memory is his going to the lake and teaching those who had never skied to ski. I don't remember him not ever getting anyone up. An who can forget all those times when we went to eat at their house. Those famous rolls Brenda made. The last time I saw Felton was a few years ago at Lowe's in Longview. He and Brenda were there picking up something. The world will be emptier without him. But heaven rejoices. And he and Kevin are having a great reunion. Felton Beasley is not gone because we know where he is. And for those who know Jesus we will join his and all the saints one day. I will always be grateful for the time we served alongside Felton and Brenda Beasley.

“ I met Felton on the Panola bus from Timpson to Carthage. I was drawn to his sweet disposition and smile. I learned years later that he had married a wonderful lady from Timpson, from where I graduated. Felton and I reunited through Brenda on Facebook and I have so enjoyed this friendship. He was a beautiful person and I am proud to call him Friend. Patricia Bailey Hooper

“ My favorite memory of Felton was when he took Doc and I all around Washington County to help me with my growing interest in photography. I cherish the photos I took that day even more now. We loved attending socials at their home in Brenham, and attending the same Sunday School and church together. We hated to see them leave, but totally understood why they wanted to go home. Brenda you and the family are in our prayers and always in our hearts.
