“ My deepest sympathy to Cathy and his wife and children. I remember Floyd as being an awkward but extreme funny teenager while his sister Cathy and my brother Tony were dating. I didn't know him as an adult , but I'm sure his humor and dedication to his family never changed throughout the years. I know Floyd will be truly missed by everyone that knew him. My God bless his family in their time of sorrow and grief and my Floyd rest in peace.

“ My heartfelt prayers and deep condolences I send to you Kathy (aka: Mary) and your familia. Floyd and I met in 1972 and became very close friends and lost touch in 1980. We reconnected on FB. We had long talks on messenger for a few years, especially while he was battling cancer. He adored you his best friend he told me and we share a name; Mary Katherine! He was a fun, and very dependable friend. As you know a very kind soul. May you and yours have a blessed service . I will light a candle on Saturday and play a song from the 1950-1960s era for your husband n best friend! PEACE n Comfort surround you and your families hearts.

Sincerely, Mary Katherine Speraw

“ Really counted this man as one of my great friends. He made coming to work a joy because you always saw that wonderful smile. His great sense of humor kept the day going great. My thoughts and prayers to all his family and to all his friends.
