“ I worked with Mrs. McCullough on the floor at Panola General Hospital in the early 90s. I never forgot her. I was very young and fresh out of RN school. I found myself being her “boss” sometimes and we had a few laughs at how ridiculous that was because she knew how to take care of our patients so well and I knew how to study and write nursing plans. She taught me so much with grace and wisdom. I had so much respect for her. May she rest in peace.

“ I loved Aunt Frances very much. I have memories of picking vegetables from her garden as a little girl and sitting at the kitchen table in her house while she cooked. She was an Amazing Aunt.
