“ Frances was a sweetheart; always positive and full of the Love of God. Even though I haven't seen her in years, I think about her often, especially when I go through rough time. She inspires me to push ahead regardless of the trials that I face. The world was blessed by her present; she will be missed.

“ I was Fran's secretary in the late 70's at the TDHS office in Kilgore and she was the most patient, kind and caring person I have ever been privileged to work with. I weep with you all in the loss of your wife, mother, sister and friend but rejoice that her infirmities are over and that she has stepped into the presence of our Lord. You will have my continued prayer support in the days ahead.

“ I enjoyed the friendship and admired Fran so very much while attending the same Singles Sunday School class at Mobberly Baptist in Longview.
Through the years I have thought of Richard and her many times.
I wish God's care upon all the family at this time.
