“ Condolences and deepest sympathies to the family of Gary. I unfortunately did not know him, but I do know, very well, his brother Don who has been a good friend since high school days. I am the last member of my immediate family and am widowed. While I identify with and have glimpses into what you are feeling is impossible, I know the sting and residual effects of having a spouse and sibling go first. Blessings to each and all of you to carry on. Joe Ben La Grone
