“ Penny, I send you my deepest sympathies. Your mother and mine were like sisters. As neighbors for all those years in the Socogee Bottom we shared the good times and the hard times. Your mother was one of the strongest, friendliest and most caring persons I ever knew. May God Bless you, your family and Mrs. Fern's other relatives.

“ God welcomed a beautiful lady through His heavenly gates. I can only imagine the wonderful reunion when she was met by Spurlin. They are together again. We will miss her, but the memories she left will live on forever. God be with her family and friends throughout the days ahead. Our love to all of you##imported-begin##Jerry and Debby Copeland##imported-end##
