“ My name is Ronald Palmer. Roy was my uncle on my Dads side of the family. I am sorry to hear that Roy passed and even more sorry that we didn't keep in touch over the years. Roy was always good to me and he loved our family like his own. I remember when I was young he used to always kid around with me and we went fishing. We spent the summers in Arkansas and Mississippi visiting our kinfolk while Dad was on leave, and we would see all our kin .Roy and Dad owned a gas station in Shreveport where i liked to hangout and they would let me pump gas and wait on customers sometimes.Roy was a good man and the world will be a lesser place now he's gone. Roy was at my Mother's funeral, and that was the last time we spoke. He is in Heaven now with his mom and dad and sister Virginia and Brother Wilbur. Rest in peace Roy, I'll see you again someday.

With Love,
Ronald
