“ Iva Mae was my Mother's Brother's daughter and, along with my sister LaVerne, were "under the house playmates in Summer's heat" as youngsters. I was two years older than Iva Mae and three older than LaVerne. We more or less lost touch until retiring and I really enjoyed visiting with her husband Bob. I'm proud of the time we did have which I now find myself wishing I'd made more effort to become better acquainted. My best wishes for her younger Brother Jimmy and wife Margaret, Son Robert and Wife Aleen.
