“ Our family moved to Carthage in 1976 and joined Central Baptist Church. The Ashby family was the most gracious and welcoming family during my time there and always as a visitor after leaving Carthage.

Kevin was instantly a friend to those around him.

Prayers and Love to the Family. 🙏🙏🙏❤️

“ I began my career working alongside Kevin. He was an extremely kind man and I enjoyed our discussions with one another. We both had the East Texas countryside in our blood. I will never forget our work memories and off the cuff talks we had with one another. Keeping his family in my thoughts and prayers!

“ I’ve know Kevin my entire life. Beginning with Kindergarten class and seeing him for the last time at our class reunion. As always, he had a huge hug and kind words. This world will definitely be a little dimmer with him gone and to his wife and children left behind I offer you many prayers. Sincerely Angela Myers.
