“ My sweet baby boy, how on this earth will I ever be the same without you? I hope you know what an impact you have made on so many! The rooms were packed solid tonight at your visitation, the love and the memories were flowing. Your personality and your heart were one of a kind. I will miss my daily phone call from you and miss seeing your truck pull in the driveway everyday. I promise to make sure your babies are well taken care of along with their Mama, you did good when you fell in love with her! She is special and she loves you with her whole heart! No words can express how much I love you and how much I will miss you. Get my mansion ready, paint it all my fav colors!! I will see you soon, but not soon enough. I love you baby, all the world, Mom

His Journey's Just Begun

*Don't think of him as gone away
his journey's just begun,
life holds so many facets
this earth is only one.*

*Think how he must be wishing
that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness
can really pass away.*

*And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost
and he was loved so much.*

“ I'll always remember James with his quiet demeanor and constant smile. He was such a nice young man. I feel sad knowing he left so young but comforted knowing he was a Christian. Our love to Vanessa, Joe and all the family. May God be very close to you as you work through your grief.

“ Oh nephew, I sure hope you can feel all the love you left back here on planet Earth for you. Just like you've always loved big, it shows so much now. But I could just hear your sweet voice and laughter saying so many things at the gates of Heaven meeting Jesus! I know you and Granny B are having a grand ole time and there's no better person to greet her with open arms. You went the same way she did and on a Monday, too. Even though we all know down here you have your heavenly wings now I just bet you are the best looking angel sporting those wings like only Brian could. You have no idea how much so many people are missing you, especially this auntie! I mean, I used to change your diapers :) You are special to me and I'll always remember that smile you always had. Picturing you, the little full headed haired boy, brings back so many memories. Of course, you grew up on us and became the most loving, caring man who always had something nice to say. You are the best father figure I have ever seen. How you loved and took care of all the children in your life was beyond belief and each one of them knows it. And because of you they'll take that love of their father with them always. You done right!
Now go and Paint it Gray all over Heaven!!! (((kiss my mama for me)))

 Will Beamon

Well, James Brain Gray, I have so many memories of our time together I couldn't write them all here. It would be a book. You are gone too soon but not forgotten. I'm not saying goodbye but see ya later. If you can hear me from the great distance in heaven, love ya teddy bear. The teddy bear is an inside thing between us. Until we meet again “ Sweetheart, I am going to miss you beyond what words could describe! You have always been so special to me! From way back when you were little and I thought I would have to make excuses for you and try and get you out of trouble. lol... You became a wonderful young man with a beautiful family and I am so proud of you and your accomplishments!! Please hug my brother (your daddy) for me and I will see the two of you one day. What a joyous occasion that will be, when we all get to heaven. Until then my loving nephew, I will always love you and miss you!!!!!!

“ I can't believe you are gone. I have so many memories that I will cherish forever. But one of my favorite things about you is how you ALWAYS protected me. I was never scared to talk mess because I knew my big brother would stick up for me. And boy let me tell you no one would even try to mess with me. It wasn't long and then i had 2 protectors . My big brother and my lil brother what a duo. Personal body guards (even when I didn't want protection) right, Sammy.... lol I'll miss you with everything in my soul. The pain of you leaving is to much. Hug him for me! Love you James Brian Gray
