“ James was truly an amazing person. His love for animals is how James and I became friends. He stood up for them when no one else did. We share one of the animals he rescued he stood his ground if anyone tried to harm an animal. He wrote some amazing stories about his animals. He loved to write he would bring me parts of his book as he was writing it, his poems were amazing his words were from the heart I know he is in heaven finishing that book. My heart felt sympathy goes out to his family he will be missed. Bob and Bonnie Sanders
