“ I always enjoyed chatting and time spent with Pokie. He was such a kind a low key soul. Pokie never seemed to let the small things get to him and seemed to love life for what it was. Couple things that stood out is the most was his appreciation for the outdoors and the unconditional love for his kids, grandkids, including his tag-a-longs and helping sidekick son-n-law Corey.

Jenny- Just know the love, admiration, support and care you gave to your Father never once went unnoticed.

Gonna miss ya Pokie... Fly high my freind.
