Mr. James Russell McFadden was born June 13, 1960, in Carthage, Texas. He passed this life peacefully May 17, 2026, surrounded by family in his DeBerry, Texas home. Russell was born to the marriage of Virginia Rose Cole and Ennis James McFadden. He was raised and schooled in Carthage, Texas and spent his career in the oil field.

James Russell McFadden lost his patience for the last time, gave his final opinion, and last threat to whip someone's @ss, said his last bull$&!+ and was still waiting on his mailbox check. The Lord finally had enough of heaven bubble wrapped and couldn't find any more reasons to deny him entrance. He is God's problem now.

Mr. McFadden is survived by his saint of a wife Rachel who stayed married to him somehow for 46 years and has abundant treasures awaiting her in heaven. His beloved dog Suzie Q, who he loved more than anyone else mentioned here. Daughter Lisa Chandler husband Korey and son Richard McFadden and wife Ashley. Grandkids, Montanna Elliott and Gauge, Mason Elliott and Josie, Kolton Chandler, Brandon McFadden, Rowdy McFadden, Zayne McFadden, Baylor McFadden, and Sawyer McFadden and great grandkids Wylie Jayne Elliott, and Brooks Davis, many other relatives and a host of friends. His life was full of adventures that he created from his stubbornness and lack of awareness and sometimes a grandchild, the fact that he made it this long has been a surprise to us all.

Serving as pallbearers will be Korey Chandler, Richard McFadden, Mason Elliott, Rowdy McFadden, Ronnie Townsend and Mike Cole.
