“ My deepest condolences 😭! Mr. Tommy was one of the dearest and best friend, mentor, and co-worker I have had and will probably ever have. We were inspired at work and known as Randy and Paw-Paw. Even though I was the only one that could call him Paw-Paw at work without him getting upset. Lol. There are so many memories him and I have shared together at home and work. I credit him for my successful career in the oilfield. He was tough but a great teacher and an even better friend. I wish I would have had a chance to say goodbye in person and I deeply apologize for loosing touch. If someone in the family sees this post I would really like to speak with them. My name is Randy Faul and my number is 337-290-6861. I will always love and miss you Paw-Paw Tommy. I will never forget you or let your memory fade!
