

Mr. James Hubert Shires

April 12, 1924 - May 20, 2014

Graveside services for Mr. James Hubert Shires, 90, of Fairplay will be 2:00 p.m. Friday, May 23, 2014 at the Rehobeth Cemetery with Rev. Hal Rymel and Rev. J.T. Ramsey officiating. Burial will follow under the direction of Hawthorn Funeral Home. Mr. Shires died May 20, 2014 in Fairplay.

Mr. James Hubert Shires was born April 12, 1924 in Shreveport, Louisiana. He was the middle son of three boys born to the marriage of James Monroe and Willie Pauline Shaw Shires. He was raised and schooled in Chapman and Beckville. He served his country through the U.S. Navy during WWII in the demolition department. Hubert married Eva Pearl Hemphill March 20, 1947 and together they raised a son and celebrated 67 years of marriage.

Mr. Shires worked as a diesel mechanic by trade. He attended Fairplay Baptist Church, loved fishing, hunting, and traveling the outdoors in his motor home. He is preceded in death by his parents, brothers, Donald Wendill and Rayburn Preston Shires.

Mr. Shires is survived by his loving wife, Dolly Shires of Fairplay, son, Jim Shires of Fairplay and a niece, Sheila Franklin of Carthage, other relatives and a host of friends.

Cemetery Details

Rehobeth Cemetery

2207 US Hwy 59 N
Carthage, TX 75633

Previous Events

Service

MAY 23. 2:00 PM (CT)

Rehobeth Cemetery
2207 Hwy 59 North
Carthage, TX

Tribute Wall

SA

“ It was a great joy to know and attend Church at Fairplay with the Shires Family, Hubert, Dolly & Jim. I'm so saddened to learn of Hubert's passing but bolstered in the realization that we will all reunite one day in Heaven. Dolly & Jim, you have my love and my prayers during this sad time. Hubert was a Fine Christian Man!

~Sam Adams

Sam Adams - May 21, 2014 at 10:52 PM