“ Nell & Family,
What a tragic loss, Jamie was such a sweet child. My heart goes out to all of her family, but, especially to you Nell. A mother's love makes this kind of loss almost impossible to bear, but, with the help of the Good Lord and your focus on them precious grands, you will be able to persevere. Having lost Penny in 1981 at the age of four allows me to know some of the pain you are feeling. Lean on God, Lean of God, Lean of God....he is our only help in the lonely, painful days.
Sincerely, June##imported-begin##June Curry Dyke##imported-end##

“ My Beautiful, Beautiful Daughter,
My world turned black when my last star was took from my sky. I am glad that the last words you heard and read from me was " I Love You". I am so glad that the last time I saw you alive you smiled. When they told me my baby was dead, your whole life ran through my head. I cried to God not my baby not my baby Please not my baby God she can't be dead. I have to go tomorrow to do the second hardest thing I have ever faced and that is to tell your Brother that his Beloved sister is gone. I'm not made of iron, nor steel, I really don't know if they have a name right now for what I am made of. I am holding it together right now for the sake of my two precious Grandbabies, but come Monday when it is time for you to come home and I do not hear your car doors slam to let me know you are home safe that is when it will hit me that yes yes my Baby is really gone. I Love You. Love Always & Forever, Momma##imported-begin##Momma##imported-end##

“ Jamie was a very special person to me. She and I worked closely together for several years and I was very fond of her. She became one of my best friends and I could always depend on her. I have had a multitude of calls from the people she worked with and all of them have expressed deep regret for our loss of such a sweet and loving person. We will always remember her.##imported-begin##Bruce Rucker##imported-end##
