

Mrs. Janice Kay Morris

December 12, 1952 - September 19, 2021

Hawthorn Funeral Home announces the death of Mrs. Janice K. Hooper Morris, 68, of DeBerry, Texas. Mrs. Janice Kay Hooper Morris was born December 11, 1952 in Carthage, Texas. Janice was one of three children born to the marriage of Jesse James and Mirtie Lois Baker Hooper. She was raised and schooled in Gary, Texas graduating with the Bobcat class of 1971 and attended Kilgore Jr. College studying commercial art.

Mrs. Morris was an artist working many mediums and loved spending time writing. She enjoyed time with family and friends. She is preceded in death by her parents, grandchild, Mackinzy Lili McGee.

Mrs. Morris is survived by her husband, Sidney Alfred Morris of Mineola, Tx. Daughters, Wynter Stone and husband Clint of DeBerry, Melissa Renee Masters of Carthage; son, Derik Sterling Masters of Dallas; brother, Jack Hooper and wife Jan of Gladewater; sister, Amanda Thanos and husband Steve of Gary; eight grandchildren; numerous nieces, nephews, and a host of friends.