“ Jason,
There are no words to say how much you will be missed by everyone that knows you. Even though I haven't heard from you in a few years I still reminisce the days that we worked together at Brookshire Brothers. Your big bear hugs seemed to take care of everything! The way you smiled like you didn't have a problem in the world could make the saddest person happy again! I know I will see you again one day, until then keep God entertained and save one of those famous hugs for me!##imported-begin##Amber Spearman-Reece##imported-end##

“ I am greatly saddened by the news of Jason's passing. Though we weathered difficult times, he was one of mine. I watched him as he grew and he is a part of my being. May he rest in peace and may he know the glory of God. I pray that God gives his family the strength to get through these troubled times.
I pray for God's blessings on all his family and friends.

“ Dear John, Dian, Jennifer, and Matt,
In this time of grief you are in my thoughts and prayers. I remember seeing Jason last year at the EZ-mart. He recognized me, as in his booming voice, and larger than life smile, he said "Hey Mr. Holmes, how are you doing?" In our short conversation he seemed like he had the world by the tail. Very Very pleasant, and wonderful spirit about him. He encouraged me to give you a call and later passed along your phone number on Facebook. I want you to know what a wonderful reflection he was of the love and spirit you each taught him. What a blessing it was to me to see him that evening. I will miss him.
I know that God's warm and comforting hand was leading him in his life. You each have my sympathy and love, forever and Always,
