“ I always loved going to aunt Jean and uncle Rays house. We had cousins to play with and always looked forward to aunt Jeans cooking. She was the BEST cook EVER... Guess she learned it from Big momma, who was another favorite of mine. I know where she's gone , although I am sad she isn't with all those that love her, she is with all of those who left before her. I am most excited for her to be reunited with Tommy Jimmy and Uncle Ray. Fly high aunt Jean , I love you and I will never forget you.

*As I sit here at 3:30 am looking at so many memories, loved ones & special occasions I can only imagine the loss I will continue to feel in the coming hours, days, weeks & years by the loss of our Mother. She was our rock & foundation. She showered so much Love on so many. I'll NEVER forget the months she sat by my bedside at Brooke Burn Unit San Antonio, Texas when I was struck by lightning in 1984. She sacrificed so much as a Mother. She loved so many loved one's whether Family or Friend. All I know to say is she'll be Forever Loved & Missed by so many. She Loved her Family & "especially her grandkids" they could do NO WRONG in Nannies eyes. I want each of them to know & remember that they were loved beyond belief by their Nanny. I want to Thank my Brother Winston also for his going beyond helping check on & care for our Mother. There's NO Greater Caring Soul. I Love him beyond imagination. That's how we were raised. Love, care & be there for those who are in need. I Love you Brother beyond the moon & back. Mother you'll be missed, but you'll NEVER BE FORGOTTEN. Dance & sing with the Angel Choir, hug All of our so many Loved ones as I know that they were waiting at Heavens Gate. Until we meet again,
Your Loving Son
Bobby.*
