“ I just found out today about his passing. I've been friends with Jeff for 25 yrs. He was always the one person I could talk to about anything and no matter what it was, he never judged me. He gave the best advice. This came as a shock, I always looked at Jeff as Super-Man. He was the greatest. I'm gonna miss our laughs and talks. He always new what to say. Love and miss you Jeff. I guess God needed another angel, thats why your with him. You will never be forgotten.

“ My heart goes out to the Boone family. You are in my thoughts & prayers. The Dixon family sends their love and sympathy. So many great memories and funny stories. Jeff was a devoted son, cherished brother and uncle and a loyal, steadfast friend. He will be missed, but celebrated by all who knew and loved him.

“ I will always remember Jeff, he was an inspiration, motivation, and a gift from God to whomever he met. He was a giving man always looking out for people, especially the elderly. I have known Jeff for 20 plus years, and the both of us made a pact to call each other every day. My heart goes out to his mother, brothers, sister, family, and friends. I know Jeff, knew God's love and I also know Jeff loved singing old religious songs. On my birthday this year, Jeff and I got thrown out of a Denny's restaurant for singing too loud, however, on his birthday they let us re-enter the restaurant if we promised to sing in a low tone, we never kept that promised and Jeff had me laughing the whole time. Jeff, was the first one to remind me, of the strong faith we shared and God only gave us as much as he knew we could carry and handle. For the past few days, I have to remind myself of Jeff's words, because I have cried a million tears.

To Jeff's family and friends, especially Jeff's nieces and nephews, feel Jeff's everlasting love and receive peace, and remember the good times with Jeff, it is those times that brings back the joy and memories you shared together. Good bye my friend, I really will miss you!

“ I remember Jeff when he was a little wild kid along with my brothers and Tim and Steve. when we all lived in Leesville for that short time we made connections forever. Much sympathy for all of you and know that our prayers are with you. In many ways the Boone's have been like an extra set of a nuts, uncles and cousins to the Dixons. may you find peace.

“ I have know Jeff since I met him in the Fall of 1975 at WTSU. He's been in my life off and on since then and has always been a great friend to me. The last few years, we reconnected again and Jeff helped me so much in so many ways. He encouraged me in my weight loss journey, helped me grow as a person emotionally and always made me laugh. He became my best friend, my rock, my anchor and I will miss him forever.
