“ My Dad, where do I begin. He was always the strong one, the provider , the one you could come talk when there was come thing in your mind.. Dad loved his family and treasured every waking moment with them .. With me I would him 2 times a day and if had not called by a certain time Mom said he would look at her and say" Well I am getting worried baby girl and called yet." I am going to miss those early and late phone calls due I can still here him saying I am just laying here watching Bat Masterson... Rest in peace Dad I love you always!!!
